Reflection on Experiential Learning: Chinatown and Grocery Store Trips

DUE DATE: Midnight on November 13, 500 words (30 points)

Using the “Experience” feature in PebblePad, reflect on your two Experiential Learning activities.

Some questions to consider as you reflect on your experiences. Be sure to support your claims with evidence (pictures, examples, etc.).

- 1) What was the most adventurous thing you have done in the two field trips? Did you try something new that you have never tried before?
- 2) What was the most surprising finding that changed your previous views or understanding about something you were previously familiar with during these trips? What was something completely new that you discovered?
- 3) How would you compare the interactions among different group members’ reactions toward the two field trips?
- 4) How have the field trips helped you understand concepts of globalization, such as deterritorialization, hybridity, heterogeneity, etc.?
- 5) What themes of globalization were shared between the two field trips? What aspects differ the most?
- 6) How have these two experiential learning trips enriched what we have been learning in NCLC 102 thus far?
- 7) What else would you like to highlight about these field trips?
